

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

8 November 2018

Parent-Teacher Conferences

Thank you to all the parents who signed up “online” and attended our recent Parent-Teacher Conferences. It is so important that we work as a team to support the students in our school. We had an amazing turnout. Your involvement and engagement is needed and appreciated.

MS Students Awards

Congratulations to Middle School students who received awards this week for showing outstanding work, dedication and achievement for the month of October. We couldn't be more proud of all the winners.

HS Students Awards

Congratulations to High School students who received awards this week for showing the three BIS values: thinking flexibly, persisting and striving for accuracy. We couldn't be more proud of all the winners.

Reading Month at BIS

November is “PAWS” to read month at BIS. We celebrate and promote reading through different activities for all grade levels. Some of these activities are “Drop Everything and Read”, readers' theater, books on movies, hands on activities in addition to read aloud. If your child is in Kindergarten or Elementary and you would like to read for them, please contact the librarian, Ms. Dema, dema.omar@bis.edu.kw.

Emergency school procedures during bad weather

Please be sure to follow us on Instagram @biskwt to receive up-to-date info regarding inclement weather and other important information.

Overall Attendance for 1st Quarter

Attendance continued to remain a high priority for BIS and we are very proud of the commitment. BIS attendance for the 1st quarter was 96.2 %.
