MS/HS WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

14 October 2021

2021-2022 Issue 8

Principal Message:

This week I saw grade 7 present on respect and responsibility. It's a good time to reflect on the importance of these two qualities as we prepare for our first week of class rotation.

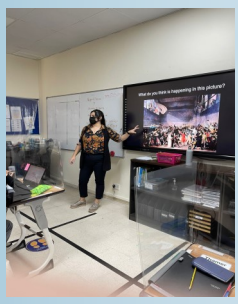

It is a big responsibility for our students to conduct themselves in a responsible and respectful way as they move to their classes. Students will need to be prompt and walk directly to class while adhering to social distancing and safety protocols. Students will need to be respectful to adults as we guide them through the rotation next week and mindful of the expectations to be kind as well as safe.

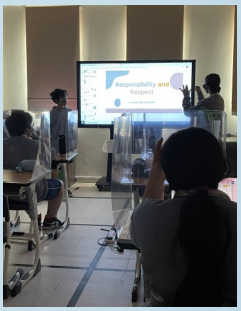

Students will rotate through their 8 classes, and they will have lunch once a week in the canteen. They still need to bring their lunch to eat and will need to stay seated while they eat. After they eat, they will have access to the playground.

I'm excited to offer more opportunities for our students in the coming weeks. Please reinforce with your students the necessity to wear masks and stay safe. It takes all of us to make BIS a safe, welcoming school.

Sophomore history: seniors learning about their learning styles in transitions and grade 7 leadership class.

Visual Presentations in Math

In Consumer Math this week, students learned about reading and creating visual presentations. Students explored different ways data can be represented visually. They created visual presentations themselves by creating a survey for their class. Below is some important information that they found:
