KG/ES WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

24 February 2022

2021-2022 Issue 25

Principal Message

Dear BIS Families,

February is a month that always seems to fly by, and this year is no exception. When we return in March from the break, we will have a very interesting experience for students, linked to Global Citizenship and making a difference in the world. This is connected to CIS accreditation. KG1-Grade 2 students will gain knowledge and understanding of different jobs that serve their community and write Thank You Cards to people doing those jobs. Grade 3-5 students are already working on creating videos for their project. So that I don't "spoil the surprise", please ask your child(ren) about what they're up to. I'm very certain you will get an enthusiastic answer!

I'm sure you realize this is my first experience with National and Liberation days and the accompanying activities and celebrations. It is truly heartwarming and mumtaz to see so many students wearing patriotic Kuwait flag colors! The boys who wore dishdashas and girls in their beautiful dresses and skirts looked like young ladies and gentlemen!

Thank-you to the Arabic & Islamic teachers: Ms. Rokaya, Ms. Mariam, Ms. Nayla, Ms. Ola, Ms. Iman, Ms. Alaa, Ms. Wafa and Coordinator Mr. Ziyad for their work in preparing a week of inspiring activities for students to participate in.

Thank-you BIS PTA for the delicious pizza on Tuesday the 22nd for all the KG/ES students! And thank-you for the hot drinks and sweets on Thursday. We are grateful for your kindness and generosity!

I wish for you and your families to have a fun, safe and enjoyable celebration!

Yours in Learning,

Mr. Sven
