MS/HS WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

17 March 2022

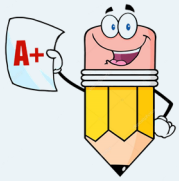

2021-2022 Issue 27

Assist Principal Message:

The Student of the Month theme for March is "Striving for Accuracy." We're encouraging students to make careful choices, pay attention to details, plan ahead, organize their work, and strive to continually improve their performance. Students that demonstrate excellence in Striving for Accuracy will be recognized for their achievements.

Next, the MS/HS PBIS program continues to move forward. Over the last two weeks, our staff submitted 300 tickets to students, acknowledging their efforts and adherence to the BIS Good Habits and Expectations. Not only are we eager to recognize students on a daily basis, but also share the good news with parents, increasing our positive communications with you. Thank you for supporting the PBIS program and encouraging our students to be their best every day.

On March 21st, MS/HS student progress reports will be sent home and uploaded to PowerSchool. Parents, please review this report with your child and continue to encourage them to reach their academic and behavioral potential throughout quarter four. The upcoming parent-teacher conferences on March 23rd and 24th offer excellent opportunities to communicate further with MS/HS teachers to ensure your child's success in semester two.

Let's make it a great week!

- Mr. Rob
