MS/HS WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

9 June 2022

2021-2022 Issue 37

Assist Principal Message:

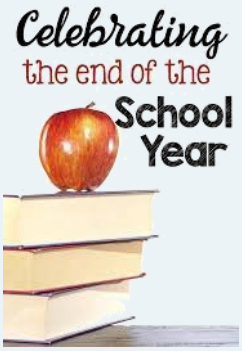

As the end of the school year approaches, I'd like to thank the entire BIS school community for an outstanding academic year. The high school graduation ceremony was a huge success, all MS/HS students completed their final exams, and students participated in our "Move Up Day" event in preparation for next school year. Thank you for your support and participation!

On June 12th, the MS/HS team will recognize students for their hard work and accomplishments this school year at our annual awards ceremony. Students will be awarded for both their academic achievements and for demonstrating personal and character growth. Congratulations to all of the recipients.

On June 15th, report cards will be distributed. Parents may pick up report cards in the school reception office during normal business hours (7:30am - 2:00pm). Additionally, report cards will also be uploaded on Schoology.

I wish you and your family a safe and fun summer break and I look forward to working with you all next school year!

Sincerely,
Mr. Rob
