Homeroom Yearly Plan 2026-2027
Grade 3

August 24 2026-November 2,2026	November 3, 2025--January 14, 2027	January 18, 2027--March 18, 2027	March 29, 2027--June 9, 2027
English
Unit 1: Classic Stories - Fictional stories and comprehension - Opinion Writing - Nouns, Verbs and Adjectives	Unit 2: Animal Classification - Non-fiction stories - Informative Writing - Suffixes and Prefixes - Subjects, predicates and pronouns	Unit 5: Our Solar System and Beyond - Compare and contrast - Cause and effect - Informative Paragraphs - Spelling - Writing conventions	Unit 7: Novel Study - Character study - Vocabulary - Fictional Narrative - Conjunctions - Dialogue - Recount
Math
● Chapter 1: Addition and subtraction strategies ● Chapter 2: Understand Multiplication ● Chapter 3: Multiplication Facts and Strategies ● Chapter 4: Multiplication with multiples of 10 and 100.	● Chapter 5: Understand Division ● Chapter 6: Division Facts and strategies ● Chapter 7: Apply multiplication and division	● Chapter 8: Relate multiplication and area ● Chapter 9 understand perimeter ● Chapter 10: time measurement and intervals ● Chapter 11: understand fractions as numbers	● Chapter 12: compare fractions and identify equivalent fractions ● Chapter 13: measurement ● Chapter 14: define two dimensional shapes ● Chapter 15: represent and interpret data
Science
Introduction to Science - Vocabulary - Scientific Procedures - Exploring the world around us.	Environment and Survival - Students develop scientific skills by modeling, analyzing data, and designing solutions to explain how traits influence organisms' survival in changing	Weather and Climate - Students develop scientific skills by collecting, analyzing, and interpreting weather data to identify patterns, make predictions, and justify	Balancing Forces - Students develop scientific skills by investigating forces, modeling motion, analyzing data, and explaining how magnetic force counteracts gravity.

	environments.	conclusions.
Social Studies
My Community - Kuwait history - Comparing how lives have changed over time	My Community - Influence of Culture - Looking at characteristics of Kuwaiti culture.	Our World - Learning about cultures from all over the world - International Day	Our World - Making comparisons between countries/cultures. - Looking at our place in the world